The CONSULTANTS

---

We are The Consultants, an Italian indierock/punkandroll band born from a joke in 2013 after 15 years in the hardcore scene.

The project was born as a one man band concept by Tom, the actual drummer, that created and recorded the first EP songs in just one weekend during a hangover, thinking that parties deserved a light, funny and more entertaining attitude.

After some small tours in Italy, Switzerland and Canary Islands we are ready to bring our coloured suits on stage to collect new foreign bras!

INFLUENCES

Even if our sound is pretty unique, these are some of the bands we love: The Strokes, Arctic Monkeys, The Wombats, NoFX, RVIVR.

BACKGROUND

Old Bns Records (recording label), Fucking Trent, The Britney's Conversion, Tom Will Kill Me, La Scena, Inner Earthquake, Garpez, Monday Proof and Wet Hot Rookies (Dj collective).

TOPICS

All lyrics are written by Tom and speak about his IT consulting job, telling about going abroad alone, always traveling from one hotel to the other, in jet lag and struggling with various problems.
